- (i) until the goods are sold and delivered at such port or place, or, unless otherwise specially agreed, until the expiry of 30 days after arrival of the goods hereby insured at such port or place, whichever shall occur, or
- (ii) if the goods are forwarded within the said period of 30 days (or any agreed extension thereof) to the destination named herein or to any other destination, until terminated in accordance with the provisions of Clause 34.1.

34.3 Where, after attachment of this insurance, the destination is changed by the Assured, held covered at a premium and on conditions to be arranged subject to prompt notice being given to the Underwriters.

35: Claims

35.1 In order to recover under this insurance the Assured must have an insurable interest in the subject-matter insured at the time of the loss.

35.2 Subject to Clause 35.1, the Assured shall be entitled to recover for insured loss occurring during the period covered by this insurance, notwithstanding that the loss occurred before the contract of insurance was concluded, unless the Assured were aware of the loss and the Underwriters were not.

35.3 If any increased value insurance is effected by the Assured on the cargo insured herein the agreed value of the cargo shall be deemed to be increased to the total amount insured under this insurance and all increased value insurances covering the loss, and liability under this insurance shall be in such proportion as the sum insured herein bears to such total amount insured. In the event of a claim the Assured shall provide the Underwriters with evidence of the amounts insured under all other insurances.

35.4 Where this insurance is on increased value the following Clause shall apply:

The agreed value of the cargo shall be deemed to be equal to the total amount insured under the primary insurance and all increased value insurances covering the loss and effected on the cargo by the Assured, and liability under this insurance shall be in such proportion as the sum insured herein bears to such total amount insured.

In the event of claim the Assured shall provide the Underwriters with evidence of the amounts insured under all other insurances.

35.5 Claims for leakage and shortage recoverable under this insurance are to be adjusted as follows:-

- A. The amount recoverable shall be the proportionate insured value of the volume of oil lost, to be ascertained by a comparison of the gross volume certified as having left tanks for loading on to the vessel with the gross volume certified as having been delivered to tanks at the termination of the transit, except that where the contract of sale is based on weight and not on volume the amount recoverable may be calculated on a weight basis from such certified quantities.

The term "gross volume" in this Clause 35.5.A means total volume without deduction of sediment and water content and free water, except to the extent that the amount of water can be shown by the Assured to have increased abnormally during the insured transit as a result of the operation of a risk covered by this insurance.

B. Adjustment shall be made to the calculation under 35.5.A to eliminate any change in volume caused by variation in temperature and any apparent change in quantity arising from the use of inconsistent procedures in determining the certified quantities.

C. Where this insurance provides for an excess to be applied to claims for leakage or shortage, such excess shall be deemed to include ordinary loss in weight or volume except when caused by variation in temperature or settling out of water. Where there is no such provision, the amount recoverable in accordance with Clauses 35.5.A and 35.5.B shall be subject to reduction for any ordinary loss excluded by Clause 33.1(ii).

36: Benefit of insurance

This insurance shall not inure to the benefit of the carrier or other bailee.

37: Minimising losses

37.1 It is the duty of the Assured and their servants and agents in respect of loss recoverable hereunder

- (i) to take such measures as may be reasonable for the purpose of averting or minimising such loss, and
- (ii) to ensure that all rights against carriers, bailees or other third parties are properly preserved and exercised and the Underwriters will, in addition to any loss recoverable hereunder, reimburse the Assured for any charges properly and reasonably incurred in pursuance of these duties.

37.2 Measures taken by the Assured or the Underwriters with the object of saving, protecting or recovering the subject-matter insured shall not be considered as a waiver or acceptance of abandonment or otherwise prejudice the rights of either party.

38: Avoidance of delay

It is a condition of this insurance that the Assured shall act with reasonable dispatch in all circumstances within their control. Note:- It is necessary for the Assured when they become aware of an event which is "held covered" under this insurance to give prompt notice.

Paramount Clauses

The following Clauses shall be paramount and shall override anything contained in the Policy inconsistent therewith.

39: General conditions

39.1 Duty of fair presentation

A. Before this insurance contract is entered into, the Assured must make a fair presentation of the risk to The Underwriters, in accordance with section 3 of the Insurance act 2015. In summary, the Assured must:

- (i) disclose to the Underwriters every material circumstance which the Assured knows or ought to know. Failing that, the Assured must give the Underwriters sufficient information to put a prudent Underwriter on notice that it needs to make further enquiries in order to reveal material circumstances. A Matter is material if it would influence the judgement of a prudent underwriter as to whether to accept the risk, or the terms of the insurance (including premium);
- (ii) Make the disclosure in Clause 39.1.a(i) in a reasonably clear and accessible way; and
- (iii) Ensure that every material representation of fact is substantially correct, and that every material Representation of expectation or belief is made in good faith.

B. For the purposes of Clause 39.1.a(i), the Assured is expected to know the following:

- (i) If the Assured is an individual, what is known to the Individual and anybody who is responsible for arranging his or her insurance.
- (ii) If the Assured is not an individual, what is known to anybody who is part of the Assured's senior Management; or anybody who is responsible for arranging the Assured's insurance.
- (iii) Whether the Assured is an individual or not, what should reasonably have been revealed by a reasonable search of information available to the Assured. The information may be held within the Assured's organisation, or by any third party (including but not limited to subsidiaries, affiliates, the broker, or any other person who will be covered under the Policy). If The Assured is insuring subsidiaries, affiliates or other parties, the Underwriters expect that the Assured will have included them in its enquiries, and that the Assured will inform the Underwriters if it has not done so. The reasonable search may be conducted by making enquiries or by any other means.

39.2 Remedies for breach of the duty of fair presentation

A. If, prior to entering into the Policy, the Assured shall breach the duty of fair presentation, the remedies available to the Underwriters are set out below.

(i) If the Assured's breach of the duty of fair presentation is deliberate or reckless:

- a) The Underwriters may avoid the Policy, and refuse to pay all claims; and,
- b) The Underwriters need not return any of the premiums paid.

(ii) If the Assured's breach of the duty of fair presentation is not deliberate or reckless, the Underwriters' remedy shall depend upon what the Underwriters would have done if the Assured had complied with the duty of fair presentation:

- a) If the Underwriters would not have entered into the Policy at all, the Underwriters may avoid the Policy and refuse all claims, but must return the premiums paid.
- b) If the Underwriters would have entered into the Policy, but on different terms (other than terms relating to the premium), the Policy is to be treated as if it had been entered into on those different terms from the outset, if the Underwriters so require.

c) In addition, if the Underwriters would have entered into the Policy, but would have charged a higher premium, the Underwriters may reduce proportionately the amount to be paid on a claim (and, if applicable, the amount already paid on prior claims). In those circumstances, the Underwriters shall pay only X% of what they would otherwise have been required to pay, where $X = (\text{premium actually charged/higher premium}) \times 100$.

B. If, prior to entering into a variation to this Policy, the Assured shall breach the duty of fair presentation, the remedies available to the Underwriters are set out below.

(i) If the Assured's breach of the duty of fair presentation is deliberate or reckless:

- a) The Underwriters may by notice to the Assured treat the Policy as having been terminated from the time when the variation was concluded; and,
- b) The Underwriters need not return any of the premiums paid.

(ii) If the Assured's breach of the duty of fair presentation is not deliberate or reckless, the Underwriters' remedy shall depend upon what the Underwriters would have done if the Assured had complied with the duty of fair presentation:

- a) If the Underwriters would not have agreed to the variation at all, the Underwriters may treat the Policy as if the variation was never made, but must in that event return any extra premium paid.

b) If the Underwriters would have agreed to the variation to the Policy, but on different terms (other than terms relating to the premium), the variation is to be treated as if it had been entered into on those different terms, if the Underwriters so require.

c) If the Underwriters would have increased the premium by more or at all, then the Underwriters may reduce proportionately the amount to be paid on a claim arising out of events after the variation. In those circumstances, the Underwriters shall pay only X% of what they would otherwise have been required to pay, where $X = (\text{premium actually charged/higher premium}) \times 100$.

d) If the Underwriters would not have reduced the premium as much as it did or at all, then the Underwriters may reduce proportionately the amount to be paid on a claim arising out of events after the variation. In those circumstances, the Underwriters shall pay only X% of what they would otherwise have been required to pay, where $X = (\text{premium actually charged/reduced total premium}) \times 100$. Nothing in Clause 39.2 is intended to vary the position under the Insurance Act 2015.

39.3 Fraudulent claims

A. If the Assured makes a fraudulent claim under this Policy, the Underwriters:

- (i) Are not liable to pay the claim; and
- (ii) May recover from the Assured any sums paid by the Underwriters to the Assured in respect of the claim; and
- (iii) May by notice to the Assured treat the Policy as having been terminated with effect from the time of the fraudulent act.

B. If the Underwriters exercise their right under Clause 39.3.A(iii):

- (i) The Underwriters shall not be liable to the Assured in respect of any Occurrence after the time of the fraudulent act; and,
- (ii) The Underwriters need not return any of the premiums paid.

Nothing in Clause 39.3 is intended to vary the position under the Insurance Act 2015.

39.4 Breach of warranty

If the Assured breaches a warranty in the Policy, the Underwriters' liability under the Policy shall be suspended from the time of the breach until the time when the breach is remedied. The Underwriters shall have no liability to the Assured for any loss, damage, costs or expenses suffered due to a breach of warranty that is not capable of being remedied. The Underwriters will have no liability to the Assured for any loss, damage, cost or expense which occurs, or which is attributable to an Occurrence or event, during the period when the Underwriters' liability is suspended.

Nothing in Clause 39.4 is intended to vary the position under the Insurance Act 2015.

39.5 Contracting out of section 11 of the Insurance Act 2015
Section 11 of the Insurance Act 2015 shall not apply to any Clause in the Policy. Where the Policy contains any Clause which, if complied with, would tend to reduce the risk of loss, damage, costs or expenses of a particular kind or at a particular location or time, and such Clause is not complied with, the Underwriters may rely upon such non-compliance to exclude, limit or discharge liability, even if non-compliance with the Clause could not have increased the risk of the loss, damage, cost or expense from the Occurrence.

39.6 Double insurance

The Policy does not cover liabilities risks costs or expenses that are insured under any other insurance Policy, or which could be insured under any other insurance Policy, unless

- a) express agreement is made and inserted on the Certificate of Insurance, or
- b) the terms and conditions of the other insurance exclude or limit liability on grounds of double insurance.

39.7 Assignment

No assignment of the Policy or any interest therein or any money which may be or become payable thereunder shall take place without the prior written agreement of the Underwriters who shall have the right in their absolute discretion to give or refuse such consent without reason and upon such terms as they think fit. Unless the Underwriters decide otherwise, any purported assignment without such consent shall be null and void and shall not be binding upon or recognised by the Underwriters.

Any settlement under the Policy to an assignee will be subject to any deduction or retention of such amounts that the Underwriters consider sufficient to discharge any liabilities of the Assured to the Underwriters, whether existing at the time of the assignment or having accrued or being likely to accrue thereafter.

39.8 Law and practice

This Policy shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law and practice. Any dispute arising out of this Policy shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the High Court of Justice in England.

40: Premium conditions

40.1 premium payment Clause

The Assured undertakes that premium will be paid in full to the Underwriters within 30 days of inception of this Policy (or, in respect of instalment premiums, when due).

If the premium due under this Policy has not been so paid to the Underwriters by the 30th day from the inception of this Policy (and, in respect of instalment premiums, by the date they are due) the Underwriters shall have the right to cancel this Policy by notifying the Assured. In the event of cancellation, premium is due to the Underwriters on a pro rata basis for the period that the Underwriters are on risk but the full Policy premium shall be payable to the Underwriters in the event of a loss or Occurrence prior to the date of termination which gives rise to a valid claim under this Policy.

It is agreed that the Underwriters shall give not less than 15 days prior notice of cancellation to the Assured. If premium due is paid in full to the Underwriters before the notice period expires, notice of cancellation shall automatically be revoked. If not, the Policy shall automatically terminate at the end of the notice period.

Unless otherwise agreed, the leading underwriter (and agreement parties if appropriate) are authorised to exercise rights under this Clause on their own behalf and on behalf of all the Underwriters participating in this contract.

If any provision of this Clause is found by any court or administrative body of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable, such invalidity or unenforceability will not affect the other provisions of this Clause which will remain in full force and effect.

Where the premium is to be paid through a London market bureau, payment to the Underwriters will be deemed to occur on the day of delivery of a premium advice note to the bureau.

40.2 interest

If any premium or any other sum owed to the Underwriters by the Assured is not paid on or before the termination date specified by the Underwriters, legal interest shall become payable from the date following the termination date in addition to the premium.

40.3 recovery

The Underwriters shall be entitled, once premiums have become due and payable, to commence (legal) action against the Assured for the recovery of any unpaid premiums and other sums. The recovery of any unpaid premiums or any other sums shall be subject to Clause 39.8 of the Policy.

41: Claims, disputes and recoveries

41.1 duty to mitigate

The Assured must take all reasonable measures to avert or minimise liability, to mitigate any loss damage costs and expense, including claims and disputes, which would be recoverable under the Policy and take all necessary steps to preserve any rights of recourse or other remedies which the Assured or the Underwriters may have directly or indirectly against any third party.

41.2 admissions, settlements and waivers

The Assured shall not admit liability for or amicably settle any claim or dispute, or waive any rights when cover is afforded and requested under the Policy without obtaining the Underwriters' prior written consent.

41.3 set off

The Assured shall have no right to set off or delay amounts payable to the Underwriters against payments due or allegedly due from the Underwriters to the Assured.

The Underwriters shall be entitled to set off any amount due from an Assured against any amount due from the Underwriters to said Assured.

43: Forbearance and waiver

No act, omission, course of dealings, forbearance, delay or indulgence on the part of the Underwriters, whether by their officers, servants, agents or otherwise, shall be treated or construed as a waiver of any rights under any of the terms and conditions contained in the Policy, the Certificate of Insurance and/or any additions, endorsements or addenda thereto.

44: Sanction Limitation and Exclusion Clause

No (re)insurer shall be deemed to provide cover and no (re) insurer shall be liable to pay any claim or provide any benefit here under to the extent that the provision of such cover, payment of such claim or provision of such benefit would expose that (re) insurer to any sanction, prohibition or restriction under United Nations resolutions or the trade or economic sanctions, laws or regulations of the European Union, United Kingdom or United States of America.
